1     I. MOTION FOR INVESTIGATION OF PERJURY AND SANCTIONS (Doc. #200 2     & 201)

3                 Plaintiff Frank Ortiz (“Ortiz”) now moves the Court to investigate Defendants’
4 former counsel, Janet Traut (“Traut”), Senior District Attorney General, and the Nevada
5 Board of Parole Commissioners (“Board”) for allegedly committing perjury and obstruction 6 of justice. Ortiz contends the Board committed perjury when they stated that they based 7 Ortiz’s parole decision solely on the parole progress report. Ortiz contends this statement is 8 false because the Board also considered Ortiz’s presentence investigation report which, 9 Ortiz contends, included an erroneous misdemeanor charge that the Board then included on 10 its parole success likelihood factors worksheet. Ortiz contends Traut committed perjury by 11 filing an affidavit stating that neither she nor the Board knew from where the information 12 on the misdemeanor charge in the parole success likelihood factors worksheet came.
13 Additionally, Ortiz contends Traut and the Board committed obstruction of justice by 14 withholding Ortiz’s presentence investigation report from him. Ortiz also moves for 15 sanctions against Traut and the Board for the alleged perjury and obstruction of justice.

16                 In response, Defendants contend, as an initial matter, that they are not the subject
17 of Ortiz’s Motion, as Ortiz is alleging Traut and the Board, not Defendants, committed 18 perjury and obstruction of justice. Nonetheless, Defendants argue that the issues Ortiz 19 raises in his Motion already have been resolved. On December 16, 2009, in response to 20 Ortiz’s motion for contempt of court, the Court held a show cause hearing and ordered 21 Traut to file an affidavit stating that neither she nor the Board knew how the information on 22 the misdemeanor charge information came to be included in Ortiz’s parole success 23 likelihood factors worksheet. Thereafter, Traut filed an affidavit stating as much. (See 24 Affidavit of Janet Traut (Doc. # 136).) Defendants contend Ortiz has provided no evidence 25 that the Board or Traut committed perjury.

26                 ///

1        It is unlawful to knowingly make a false material declaration under oath in a
2 proceeding before any court of the United States. U.S. v. McKenna, 327 F.3d 830, 838 (9th
3 Cir. 2003) (citing 18 U.S.C. § 1623(a)). “A statement is material if it has a natural tendency 4 to influence, or was capable of influencing, the decision of the decision-making body to 5 which it was addressed.” Id. at 839 (internal quotation omitted).

6        Ortiz has failed to meet his burden establishing that the Board or Traut
7 committed perjury or obstruction of justice. The presence of a mistake in the parole success
8 likelihood worksheet without more is not sufficient to establish that Traut or the Board lied 9 about the source of the mistake. Additionally, in this Court’s prior Order it concluded the 10 mistakes in the parole success likelihood worksheet, including the erroneous misdemeanor
11 charge, were immaterial, as the Board’s decision to deny Ortiz parole was based on Ortiz’s 12 offense of conviction and his disciplinary history. With respect to Ortiz’s claim of 13 obstruction of justice, the Court already has addressed the confidentiality of the presentence 14 investigation report in its prior Order (Doc. #238). Moreover, Ortiz attached a copy of the 15 presentence investigation report to his Motion. Thus, Ortiz’s contention that he does not 16 have access to it is moot. The Court will therefore deny Ortiz’s Motion for Investigation of 17 Perjury and Motion for Sanctions.

18 II. MOTION FOR SANCTIONS (Doc. #221)

19        Ortiz moves for sanctions against Defendants for filing their Motion to Exclude 20 Plaintiff’s Opposition Exhibits 7, 8, 9, and 10 because Ortiz argues the Motion contains 21 false statements. Specifically, Ortiz contends Defendants falsely argue that Ortiz is at fault
22 for not responding to Defendants’ interrogatories when in fact, on October 10, 2009, Ortiz
23 represented to the Court that he no longer had the interrogatories and Defendants’ counsel 24 agreed to fax them to Ortiz. Ortiz contends he never received the interrogatories. In 25 response, Defendants contend it is Ortiz who is misrepresenting the facts. Defendants argue 26 they served Ortiz with the interrogatories and Ortiz subsequently lost them.

1           “If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines 2 that Rule 11(b) has been violated, the court may impose an appropriate sanction on any 3 attorney, law firm, or party that violated the rule or is responsible for the violation.” Fed. R.
4 Civ. P. 11(c)(1). The conduct Ortiz alleges Defendants engaged in is not sanctionable.
5 Defendants made permissible arguments in their Motion and Ortiz had an opportunity to 6 respond to those arguments. The Court therefore will deny Ortiz’s Motion for Sanctions.

7 III. CONCLUSION

8           IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Investigation of 9 Perjury (Doc. #200) is hereby DENIED.

10           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Sanctions (Doc. #201) is 11 hereby DENIED.

12           IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff’s Motion for Sanctions (Doc. #221) is 13 hereby DENIED.
